MEMORANDUM

DATE: September 2002

FROM: Environmental Review Officer

SUBJECT: Washeteria Project, Stebbins, Alaska
Final Environmental Review, AN 02-G37

TO: FOR THE RECORD

Based upon the scope for this project, an environmental review in accordance with the National Environmental Policy Act (NEPA) and the National Historic Preservation Act (NHPA) has been completed. The Alaska Native Tribal Health Consortium (ANTHC) has considered all potential environmental concerns (specific and cumulative effects) associated with the project in consultation with applicable federal, state, and local authorities. The Environmental Review Report has been completed and reviewed with respect to the proposed health facilities improvement project and is attached to this Memorandum.

FINDINGS

The ANTHC uses the Indian Health Service (IHS) environmental review procedures for conducting environmental analyses of all health facilities projects, as outlined in the Environmental Review Manual, the second edition of which was issued in January 2000. This environmental review finds that no further environmental investigation is necessary. All actions involving construction have been reviewed and no extraordinary or exceptional circumstances were found to exist. It is therefore recommended that the Denali Commission approve a determination of eligibility for categorical exclusion from the requirement to conduct further environmental evaluation for this project. Current IHS policy (Federal Register, Vol. 58, No. 3, January 6, 1993, pp. 569-572) allows for categorical exclusion of health and sanitation facility projects that do not have a significant impact on the environment, as determined by the attached "Environmental Review and Documentation."

BACKGROUND

Stebbins is located on the northwest coast of St. Michael Island, on Norton Sound. It lies 8 miles north of St. Michael and 120 miles southeast of Nome. It lies at approximately 63.52222° N Latitude and -162.28806° W Longitude. (Sec. 02, T023S, R019W, Kateel River Meridian.)

The population of Stebbins, as of December 2001, according to the Alaska Department of Community and Economic Development, was 547 people.

ENVIRONMENTAL RESOURCES OF IMPORTANCE

This project involves the construction of a new washeteria in the community of Stebbins on the site where the former washeteria and health clinic, since burned down, stood. There will be little or no ground disturbance and all will be confined in previously disturbed ground. The ANTHC has determined there will be no affects on historic properties and this finding will be shared with the State Historic Preservation Officer for concurrence. There are no other environmental resources of importance identified that will sustain direct, adverse impacts.

SCOPE OF WORK

This project will construct a new washeteria in the City of Stebbins, Alaska. The scope of this project includes design and planning, site preparation, materials and equipment, construction, and labor.

PROPOSED MITIGATION MEASURES

Given the environmental review performed by the ANTHC, no mitigation activities are proposed for this project.

SUMMARY

The City of Stebbins will be responsible for ensuring that final design plans for health facilities will be submitted to the appropriate federal and state agencies for review and approval. In addition, the City of Stebbins, Alaska is responsible for compliance with all applicable federal, state and local environmental laws, regulations, and requirements during all phases of the project, and for obtaining all necessary construction permits.

In any discovery situation of cultural items and/or human remains encountered during the course of the project, the City of Stebbins shall suspend construction activity in the area of discovery. The City of Stebbins shall further be directed to notify the ANTHC and the Denali Commission to pursue appropriate steps with the State Historic Preservation Officer for developing an acceptable course of action prior to resuming construction activities in the impacted area.

In the event of any other unforeseen discovery which could change the environmental determination, the community shall be directed to notify the appropriate authority, the ANTHC, and the Denali Commission to develop an acceptable course of action prior to resuming construction activities in the impacted area.

With the scope of work outlined in the Cooperative Project Agreement, the ANTHC has completed the environmental review. If the scope of work is changed in the future, then the community and the ANTHC will revisit this environmental review to determine if potential environmental concerns have been addressed.
